Description: Founded in 1980 as the first of its kind in Arizona, Direct is a private, nonprofit organization operated by and for people with disabilities. Today, Direct is one of five Centers for Independent Living (CILs) in Arizona and part of a national network that:

- Advocates disability rights and justice
- Supports individuals in achieving their self-identified independent living goals
- Promotes the Independent Living philosophy and principles of consumer control, informed choice, community integration, and dignity of risk

Leo Effendi and Reyna Escuin will be joining the group to talk about Independent Living Philosophy and Center for Independent Living Core Programs.
